SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER

Richard Gill OAM

Conductor & Music Education Advocate

Richard Gill is one of Australia's pre-eminent and most admired conductors and is internationally respected as a music educator, specialising in opera, musical theatre and vocal and choral training. Richard's work in developing young musicians and creating opportunities for them is recognised world-wide.

*We teach music because it is unique and good.
We teach music so that children can make their own music.
We teach music because it acts in a unique way on the heart,
mind, soul and spirit of the child, stimulating thought and imagination in very special ways.*

Richard Gill, 2013

Kathryn Zerk

Soprano

Kathryn studied voice and violin at Elder Conservatorium of Music and the Victorian College of the Arts. She has lived and performed in the UK and been a company member of Opera Victoria, The State Opera of South Australia and Western Australian Opera.

Since moving to Sydney Kathryn has devoted herself to nurturing young voices. Inspired by the Suzuki Philosophy of music education, Kathryn has developed her own singing programme designed to encourage young voices to sing with beautiful tone, with confidence and joy.
