Terms & Conditions

1. All Programs are subject to change without notice.
2. Guest Faculty listings correct at time of publishing. We are unable to accept responsibility for any changes made to Guest faculty prior to the Suzuki Festival.
3. All applicants must be current members of their Suzuki Association.
4. STEAA(NSW)Ltd. Is a training organisation responsible for the continued professional development of our teachers. This means that we often film, photograph or record STEAA(NSW) Ltd. Activities both for our own records and for training of our teachers. We also feature photographs of our events for all to share in our quarterly magazine, Tempo. By joining the STEAA(NSW)Ltd. You are deemed to have given permission for photographic, audio or video footage of your child(ren) to be taken at our events for use in the manner described above. Dr Suzuki's message to us was to ensure that our children are "Nurtured by Love". All our events are held within that framework and any recording is done to share and support this message
5. All Cancellations received in writing by 14 March 2023 will be refunded less a $70 cancellation fee. No refunds can be made after this date.
6. A parent or carer must be in attendance at the festival at all times. No responsibility will be taken by STEAA(NSW)Ltd. for children of students left unattended.
7. All Audition submissions are due on 28 February 2023.
8. Your enrolment in the Sydney Suzuki Festival indicates your acceptance of these Terms and Conditions.
9. Late enrolments will only be accepted if positions are available in appropriate classes. You will be notified within five working days.
